Notre Dame High School Choir

The Notre Dame High School Concert Choir from Burlington, Iowa, USA is once again very honored and excited to be performing and touring in Rome, Venice, and Florence! This is truly a wonderful opportunity and a once-in-a-lifetime experience!

The ND Concert Choir has been a part of a long tradition of musical excellence since 1955. The ND choir's ambitious activities include four concerts a year as well as performances in festivals, church, and community events. The choir consistently receives excellent and superior ratings at state contest each year.

Notre Dame Choirs enjoy musical experiences that reinforce positive goals fostering self-esteem, discipline, respect, accomplishment, and pride. The director, singers, and families of Notre Dame share a commitment to provide the highest quality of music making and artistic excellence.

Amanda Brent

Mrs. Brent is the Director of Choirs at Notre Dame Junior and Senior High School where she teaches Junior High Chorus, High School Concert Choir, Treble Choir, Jazz Choir, Handbell Choir, and Musical Theatre. She received her Bachelor of Music Education from Western Illinois University and is currently working on a Masters of Choral Conducting from Western Illinois University.

In addition to teaching in public and private schools, Amanda is the choir director at Saints Mary and Patrick Church and teaches private voice and piano lessons. She is an active church soloist and accompanist for many church, school, and community performances. She is a member of the American Choral Directors Association.

Amanda and her husband Rodney reside in rural Gladstone, Illinois, and are the proud parents of their five children: Brandon, Madeline, Mitchell, Jackson, and Spencer.
